SPEAR'S GAMES VICTORY

A FREE COMPETITION FOR ALL WHOOPEE! READERS!

It's about time you did some painting!

— with the help of HUMBROL

There are no less than 100 — yes, one hundred, Humbrol "Paintabout" kits to be won in our super, fun-to-enter competition. They couldn't be easier to complete; you just choose your colours from the selection in the kit, and paint on the back of the specially etched panel. Turn the panel back to front, and there's your colourfully completed painting, all ready to frame. It's all your own work!

HOW TO ENTER

This week's super prizes will particularly appeal to budding artists — but to be an artist you must first know your colours!

Can you discover the seven colours hidden in our picture puzzle? Spell them out by taking the printed letters and the first letter of each object you come to. For example, the answer to No.1 is O — R (Rake) — A (Apple) — N — and so on. Get the idea?

Having found all seven colours, list them neatly on a postcard in numbered order. Next, add your name, address and age in block letters, and ask a parent to sign it as your own unaided work.

Post your card to: COLOURS COMPETITION, WHOOPEE, 136 LONG ACRE, LONDON, WC2E 9QP, to arrive not later than Monday, 18th November, 1974.

All entries will be examined, and the prizes awarded for the 100 neatest correct entries, according to age. The Editor's decision is final.

The competition is open to all readers, under 17 years of age, living in Great Britain, Northern Ireland and the Channel Isles except children of employees of IPC Magazines Ltd. and the printers of WHOOPEE.

Enter the Pritt Christmas Card Competition

You could go riding into the New Year on a brand new Raleigh Chopper II or Commando bike. You could be taking pictures with a smashing 'instant' camera. Or you could win one of the terrific toys or games.

They're all prizes in this great new competition that you can enter just by sending us a Christmas Card.

The only thing is, you have to make the card yourself, using Pritt, the non-sticky sticky stuff. You can make it any shape, with as many folds or cut-outs as you like. And you can decorate it with whatever you want: tinsel, wool, coloured paper, leaves, drawings or pictures cut from magazines and comics.

But remember, you've got to stick your card together with Pritt.

When you've finished, fill in the entry form and stick it to the back of your Christmas card. Put everything together in an envelope, mark your age on the outside and post it to us at the address below.

There are two classes to enter (under 11's and 11-14's), so everybody stands an equal chance.

RULES

1. This competition is open to everyone aged 14 and under, excluding only the families of employees of Henkel Chemicals Limited, associated companies, their agents or anybody connected in any way with the running of the competition.
2. All valid entries will be examined and prizes awarded to those entries which in the opinion of the judges show the most flair and imagination. (Age will be taken into account).
3. No glue or adhesive other than Pritt must be used when making your Christmas card, otherwise your entry will be disqualified.
4. The last date on which arriving entries will be accepted is 21st December. No responsibility can be accepted for entries delayed, lost or damaged in the post.
5. Winners will be notified by 31st January, 1975 and prizes awarded as soon as possible after that date.
6. Instructions on how to enter are also rules and entry implies acceptance of them.
7. Entries become the property of Henkel Chemicals Limited.

Dear Master "X",

I am a junior spy (or trying to be anyway) and I am amazed by the equipment you use at Spy School. Is it possible to buy any of the items from you?

GARY SANDERS, WOMBOURNE.

Sorry, pal, but it's all top secret stuff. We even use invisible ink to do our lessons so no-one can tell if we're right or wrong . . . "X".

Dear Editor,

I am a paper boy, and I first discovered WHOOPEE! when it fell out of a paper I was to deliver. I read it from cover to cover, and I've enjoyed every issue since.

MARK GIBSON, WALTON-ON-THAMES.

Three cheers for all paper boys and girls. You're doing a grand job delivering the laughs . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I have a new reader for you — my Mum. Here she is enjoying your super HOLIDAY SPECIAL. Her favourite feature is the Bumpkin Billionaires.

CHRISTOPHER RICKETTS, TWICKENHAM.

Bet she doesn't even ask to share your prize, either. Good for Mum . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

My friends (Janette, Loraine, and Pat) and I have formed a club called the WHOOPEE! SOCIETY. We have WHOOPEE! every week and think it's great.

JACKY JONES, TAN-Y-FRON.

You can be club cashier, Jacky. Your letter has boosted the Society's funds. Editor.

OSSIE

Hi, gang! It's all go at the moment, because we're busy working on the WHOOPEE! and SHIVER & SHAKE Annuals for 1976. Here we are in 1974, with the 1975 annuals in the shops, and us preparing the books for 1976! Now, on to your letters . . .

Dear Ossie,

Recently, our house was struck during a storm. There were seven people indoors at the time, and thankfully, no-one was hurt. Everything electrical in the house burnt out, and the upstairs section was destroyed.

KEITH HOWE, SHIRLAND.

What a frightening experience. I'm only glad you are all safe to tell the tale. Ossie.

Dear Ossie,

A reader wrote to say he had gone 5 miles on a sponsored walk. Well, I walked 20 miles on a sponsored walk. Beat that!

ANDREW COLE, SHANKLIN.

Gasp! No fear — not with the price of shoes these days! . . . Ossie.
